

DNREC's Division of Parks & Recreation's Brandywine Zoo to close on Tuesday, June 26, for fallen tree removal

WILMINGTON – DNREC's Division of Parks & Recreation's Brandywine Zoo will be closed on Tuesday, June 26, while a tree that fell Sunday night is removed. The falling tree damaged the porcupine exhibit (no animals were harmed) and minor damage was reported to the roof of the animal hospital.

The zoo will re-open Wednesday, June 27, at its usual time of 10 a.m.